

I'll Sing of Your Love

Caught up in your mercy

Higher than any mountain

Captured by your grace

Deeper than any sea

Taken by your faithfulness

Wider than any ocean

Your love will never change

Is your love for me

Since my eyes are opened

I'm lost in your embrace

With all of my heart

I'll sing of your love

With all of my heart

I'll sing of your love

I'll sing of your love

×2

I'll sing of your love

I lift my voice in praises

And glorify your name

I lift my voice in praises

I'll sing I'll sing of your love

And glorify your name

I'll sing I'll sing of your love
